Let's Read About the Broken Vase

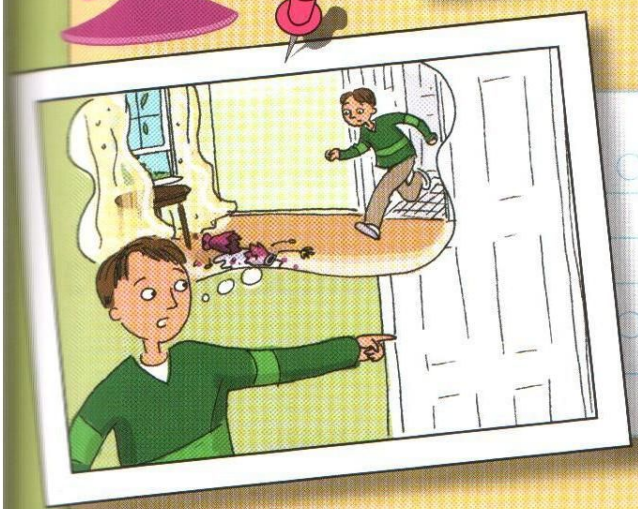

CD 2 37

"Let's go, John." said Danny. "It's a windy day. We can fly our kites."
"I can't go with you," said John.
"Why not?" asked Amy.
"Because my mom is coming home, and she's going to be angry," said John.
"Why?" asked Danny.
"Look at my mom's vase," said John. "She'll think I broke it."
"Did you?" asked Amy.
"No, I didn't," said John. "I gave her that vase. It was her favorite."

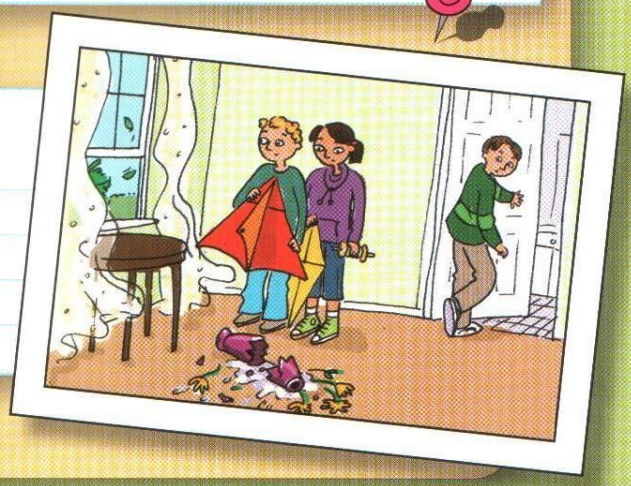

New Words

vases
break → broke → broken hear → heard crash

"What happened?" asked Amy.
"I went into the kitchen," said John.
"What happened then?" asked Danny.
"I heard a crash and ran back in here," said John. "And I saw the broken vase."

"OK," said Amy. "Go into the kitchen again." John opened the door to the kitchen. The curtain blew across the table. "Well, now we know what happened," said Danny.

What happened to the vase?