Let's Read About the Secret Message

CD 1 39

"Hi, Everett."

"Hi, JJ."

"What are you doing?" asked JJ.

"I'm trying to read this message," said Everett. "I think my father wrote it.

"Why is the note in code?" asked JJ. "Isn't English easier?"

"My parents use codes to write secret messages," said Everett.

"You like codes," said JJ. "Can you read this one?"

"Sure. This is a substitution code," said Everett. "Look at each letter. Write the letter before it in the alphabet. So Ij is Hi."

"Oh, I see," said JJ. "So, fwfsfuu is Everett. It says Hi, Everett.

"That's right. Let's see what it says."

"Oh," said JJ. "I see my name there—KK instead of JJ. I'll get the snacks and sodas!"
